

Day 1 Missions Skit

Hi Sue!

Hi!

Do you remember where the Byrds were missionaries?

Ummm, it starts with an M...Minesota, Mississippi...Mickey Mouse!

Nice try! They are missionaries in Missouri.

Ohhh!

Do you remember what they did?

They ate some food!

Well, they did eat some food, but what did they do before eating it?

They cooked it.

Yes! They taught the women in their neighborhood how to cook, so they could make healthy meals for their families.

Ohhhh

Do you remember what they did while they were cooking?

They made a big mess!

Well, they may have made a big mess too, but what they really were doing was telling their neighbors about Jesus.

You know, we can do that too!

Let's pray and ask

God to help the Byrds and us tell people in our neighborhood about Jesus.
