

Day 3 Missions Skit

Hi Sue!

Hi!

Do you remember where the Burkhalters are missionaries?

It starts with a C...Colorado...Cancoon ...Cookie

Nice try! The Burkhalters are missionaries to Columbia, South America.

Ohhh!

They whare Jesus' love with a group of people called the Embera.

Oh, I remember we heard they wore colorful dresses with puffy sleeves that they make themselves!

Yes, that's right. The once were farmers, but they moved to the city to find other jobs.

So they could make money to live.

Yes! The Burkhalters help the Embera by teaching them basic skills like how to read and write.

Like when I learn my ABCs? (Sing) A, B, C, D...

Learning how to read and write helps the Embera read the Bible and understand what it says.

Let's pray for the Embera as they read their Bibles, hear stories about Jesus, and see that God loves them. We can pray that they begin to understand that He is holy and will want to follow Him.
