

Day 4 Missions Skit

Hi Sue!

Hi!

Do you remember what unreached people group the Burkhalters are missionaries to?

It starts with an E. Ethiopians...Estonians...Easter Egg

Nice try! The Burkhalters are missionaries to the Embera people group.

Ohhh!

Many of the Embera move to the city where it's safer for them than in their villages. The apartments where they live are very small. Sometimes 5-10 people have to sleep in one room.

I share a room with my sister, but I wouldn't want to share with 10 people!

The Embera people have to do what they must to survive.

The Burkhalters help the Embera find jobs so they can have food to eat. They often eat something like corn tortillas that they make themselves.

I love tortillas! I get those at Taco Bell!

The Embera don't have a Taco Bell to get their tortillas. They must make them. They are happy to have anything to eat!

Life is hard for the Embera people. Let's pray that even when times are tough, they realize that Jesus is trustworthy and loves them. After all, He sent the Burkhalters to help them!
